The Best Dreams Ever

When Mateo, Z-Blob, Izzie, Cooper, and Logan appeared in the dream landing one night, something was clearly wrong. The dream landing was as green and safe as ever, but Mr. Oz and Albert were already there, clearly distressed as they looked over the spaceship they usually took on their adventures in the dream world. Unlike usual, steam and smoke hissed out of the vehicle's engine.

"What's wrong, Mr. Oz?" Izzie asked.

"I want to put it on!" Snivel shouted, as he held the glass cylinder filled with silvery ramidation behind him.
"No, me!" Sneak hissed.
While the two fought, Susan snuck up, snatched the container, and flew up to the top of the pyramid to finish it herself. But just as Susan was about to place it neatly at the top—CRASH!—Sneak and

Glitter Bandit

It was late at night when Zoey and her gryphon, Zian, headed back to their secret hideout after a long night of patrolling the dream world. They streaked down toward their cave's entrance when hot pink shimmering caught Zoey's eye.
"Is that ... glitter?" she asked.
Zian cawed in affirmation. There was a trail of glitter leading into their hideout. It looked like their secret base wasn't so secret anymore.

Outline the small fragments of the scene in the big picture.

It's time to practice scaring away evil ravens with a hockey stick!
Watch Logan's training routine and then write the numbers of the missing moves in the circles.

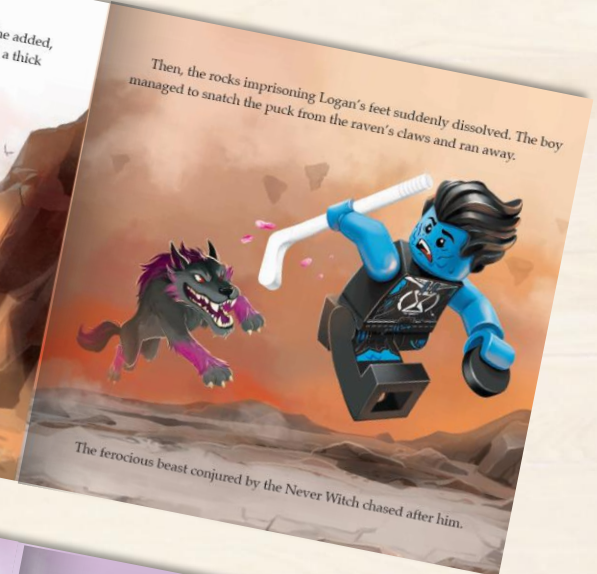

Aaah! The Never Witch's spiders are everywhere!
Be brave and count them.

"Silence!" the witch shouted. "Get ready to . . . play tag!" she added, hitting the cauldron with her magic staff. The potion produced a thick cloud of steam and a huge wolf emerged.

Then, the rocks imprisoning Logan's feet suddenly dissolved. The boy managed to snatch the puck from the raven's claws and ran away.

The ferocious beast conjured by the Never Witch chased after him.
